

Zaida Sampedro Préstamo
HEALTH INFORMATION SYSTEMS GENERAL DIRECTOR

Zaida Sampedro is Developing her career mainly in the Public Administration and Health Services.

Information technology Engineer, graduated at the Universidad Simón Bolívar, Caracas and MBA in Enterprise Management.

After working for two years in the oil industry, she joined Indra, and in 1990 becomes sales and technical manager of an Operational Department, within the Public Sector. From 1992, she becomes the Director of Healthcare department. Between 1996 and 2002, she is responsible for the area 2000/Euro in Indra, managing the global business line. From 2002 until September 2005, she has been the Manager for the Public Administration and Health.

In September 2005, she joins ICM (Madrid Community IT Agency) where she is responsible for eAdministration.

In October 2007, she was named General Director of Health Information Systems for Madrid Health System.