

Donata Meroni

Head of Communication Sector

European Commission- Directorate for Health and Consumers – Public Health Directorate

Donata is responsible for the development and implementation communication strategies including health campaigns and e-communications (public health web-site, Health EU portal and its newsletter) at the Public Health Directorate of the European Commission-DG SANCO.

She is a member of the Editorial Board of the EU Health Portal which brings together representatives from the Commission, EU Member States, EEA and Candidate Countries, NGOs and International Organisations.